

New York Fries Peak Restaurant Opening cum exhibition of Simon Yam photos

In 2009, Mr Simon Yam personally spent a day with our children and taking photo of them in the HK Country Club. Our children with their most natural smile, and posing has made the occasion a really memorable one. With his professionalism and kindness, there are a few hundred copies of perfect photos from our children. We are blessed to have New York Fries agreed to exhibit some of these photos in their Peak restaurant starting June 11 for a month. The event was held with great success and help raise autism awareness.
